The Allandale Building

The Allandale Building offers phenomenal architectural design and sustainability. Facing directly onto Allandale Road with direct pedestrian access from Magwa Crescent, the building design makes use of exquisite landscapes and grand staircases to take up the substantial slope across the site, creating pathways and natural entrances to buildings in the process.

The building comprises three basement parking levels and four office levels above ground. With flexible floor plates of approximately 4 000sqm, interlinked by a central atrium, this multi-client building is designed around flexibility and customisation.
